Sharing In Your Holy Spirit Filled Life
CORE Discipleship is a faith-based, Christian organization. Our mission is to help you make disciples of Jesus. We provide a simple and reproducible discipleship process based on Jesus’ “inner circle” or “core” comprised of Peter, James, and John. We also provide discipleship training and free discipleship resources as free downloadable eBooks.

Just like you, Father God is using the many events and circumstances of life’s journey to mold and shape me into the person He desires. Occasionally, I’ve cooperated completely. It’s in those rare moments when something extraordinary takes place - Heaven touches earth, mountains are moved, a part of me is transformed.

Through His infinite patience and unfathomable love I am learning to become the man He created me to be. As I daily surrender my life to Him through His precious Holy Spirit, I see more clearly life eternal.

My hope and prayer for you are that you too will discover God’s purpose and become exactly what He has planned for you all along - His son or daughter.

May God grant that we become His disciples by His grace,

Doug Morrell

We charge absolutely nothing for our resources. We do require that you use the content in a non-commercial manner in an effort to “lead people to become fully devoted followers of Christ.” In other words, you are not allowed to use our resources and charge people for them. We’re not interested in our name or brand on the resources. We would love to hear back from you. Let us know how our resources are helping people grow in Christ. God bless you as you live His life.

Doug is a seasoned discipler and small group leader. Since graduating from Texas Tech University in 1984, he’s worked in a dual capacity -- working within for-profit businesses around the country while also serving the church in various pastoral roles. Additionally, he and his wife Suzie are the founders/directors of CORE Discipleship, a ministry dedicated to making disciples who make disciples. Doug and Suzie have three children: Katheryn, Hannah, and Nathaniel.

It is through the infilling, empowering and guidance of the Holy Spirit that we discover the keys to growing spiritually and learn to serve others as we share that which has been entrusted to us.

“But how can people call for help if they don’t know who to trust? And how can they know who to trust if they haven’t heard of the One who can be trusted? And how can they hear if nobody tells them? And how is anyone going to tell them, unless someone is sent to do it?” (Romans 10:14, The Message)

Holy Spirit Filled Discipleship:

At the outset, it is important that we understand some key concepts regarding the process of preserving and transmitting the gospel.

“And the things you have heard me say in the presence of many witnesses entrust to reliable men who will also be qualified to teach others.” (2 Timothy 2:2)

- Holy Spirit Filled And Empowered Discipleship: the process of living as a disciple as we choose to obey the prompting of the Holy Spirit moment-by-moment.

- Discipling: the Holy Spirit empowered process of helping another believer become a worker in the harvest fields of the world; then continuing in that commitment and reproducing it in the life of another until Christ is fully formed in them.

- Disciple: a committed follower of Jesus Christ, one possessed by the Holy Spirit and who is willing to be a lifelong learner of the Lord.

Becoming a disciple of Jesus is a process that will liberate you from all man-made dogmas, from every burden and oppression, from every anxiety and torture that afflicts your conscience. If you follow Jesus by His Holy Spirit, you will escape from the hard yoke of your own laws, and submit to the kindly yoke of Jesus Christ.

“Come to me, all you who are weary and burdened, and I will give you rest. Take my yoke upon you and learn from me, for I am gentle and humble in heart, and you will find rest for your souls. For my yoke is easy and my burden is light.” (Matthew 11:28-30)

What does the call of Holy Spirit empowered discipleship mean today to the retail store clerk, the truck driver, the business executive, or the single parent of three children? What happens if we answer the call to this radical process of discipleship? Where will this lead us? What will it cost? Only Christ knows, for it is Him who first must bid come.

We must remember that on two separate occasions the apostle Peter received the call from Jesus to, “Follow me.” It was the first and last statement Jesus spoke to this disciple (Mark 1:17; John 21:22). The first occasion was by the lake of Gennesareth, when Peter left his nets and his trade and followed...
Jesus at His Word. The second occasion is when the Risen Lord finds him back again at his old work. Once again it is by the lake of Gennesareth, and a whole life of discipleship in the following of Christ. Halfway between them comes Peter’s confession, when he acknowledged Jesus as the Christ of God. Three times Peter hears the same proclamation that Christ is his Lord and God - at the beginning, at the end, and at Caesarea Philippi.

Likewise, for those who are in Christ Jesus, we are continuously being formed, conformed and transformed into the image of Jesus. We are being molded into the very likeness, taking on the character of Jesus Himself, as we accept by faith through grace His purpose for us. The goal of Holy Spirit filled discipleship is that: “Christ be formed in you,” (Galatians 4:19). As well, “Those whom [God] foreknew he also predestined to be conformed to the image of his son” (Rom. 8:29). And, “All of us, with unveiled faces, seeing the glory of the Lord as though reflected in a mirror, are being transformed into the same image” (2 Cor. 3:18).

“Therefore I urge you to imitate me.” (1 Cor. 4:16)

Paul told the Corinthians to imitate his life. He was able to make this statement because he walked close to God, spent time in God’s Word and in prayer, and was aware of God’s presence in his life at all times. God was Paul’s example; therefore, Paul’s life could be an example to other Christians. Paul wasn’t expecting others to imitate everything he did, but they were encouraged to imitate those aspects of his beliefs and conduct that modeled Christ’s way of living.

“We do not want you to become lazy, but to imitate those who through faith and patience inherit what has been promised.” (Heb. 6:12)

“Remember your leaders, who spoke the word of God to you. Consider the outcome of their way of life and imitate their faith.” (Heb. 13:7)

“Dear friend, do not imitate what is evil but what is good. Anyone who does what is good is from God. Anyone who does what is evil has not seen God.” (3 John 1:11).

If you are a Christian, you owe much to others who have taught you and model for you what you need to know about the gospel and Christian living. Continue following the good examples of those who have invested themselves in you by investing your life through evangelism, service, and Christian education.

God uses our common, everyday life to form His character in us. One particular teacher calls what we do in the church “the kitchen of Christianity.” It is there that we develop our understanding, shaping and molding the dough of our life in preparation for the remaining week to follow. The truth of the matter is that what we do in the church on Sunday, though critically important, is not what proves out our witness. Our character is shaped and honed as we go through life. Patience is patterned as we stand in the checkout line. Perseverance is taught when we seek out a new job. Love is learned as we see and meet the needs of others. Regardless of station, whether it is in an office or in the field, our work becomes the foundation from which our Lord builds our character.

“Consider it pure joy, my brothers, whenever you face trials of many kinds, because you know that the testing of your faith develops perseverance.” (James 1:2-3)

Daily experiences become the platform for Holy Spirit filled discipleship. This process teaches us the value of character. Punctuality, timeliness, and obedience are items learned as we go through life.
BOOK 5: THE HOLY SPIRIT FILLED LIFE

The life and teaching of Jesus are the standard for our behavior. As previously discussed, the love Jesus taught embraces more than obedience. For obedience to be real it should not be our first goal. The greatest commandment is to love the Lord, not to obey Him; if we don’t obey Him out of love, our obedience will not be from our hearts. For Holy Spirit filled discipleship to take place, there must be a very sincere desire by each person not to just know God’s truth, but to live by His standard. The heart of each session is based on each person’s willingness to “consider others better” than themselves (Phil. 2:3). In fact, any person demonstrating an attitude of spiritual authority cannot be blessed or be a blessing to others - humility is paramount.

At the very outset of Jesus’ ministry His invitation was, “Come to me all you that labor and are heavy laden, and I will give you rest.” Multitudes came. Later, however, the ranks were purposely thinned. Initially Jesus’ miracles and expectation of His establishing an earthly kingdom attracted the crowds. But the Lord knew that they were following Him for what they could receive, their motives were entirely self-serving. And He began to talk about the cost of discipleship.

It is at this point that Jesus gives the crowd a revelation of the only terms by which a person can become a true disciple. Three times He gives the terms, without which, He says, no one could be His disciple. In Luke chapter 14 verse 26, in verse 27, and in verse 33 He once and for all times sets the standard and the terms; and then by means of two parables, He clearly explains the reason for the severity of these terms.

“If anyone comes to me and does not hate his father and mother, his wife and children, his brothers and sisters—yes, even his own life—he cannot be my disciple.” (Luke 14:26)

“And anyone who does not carry his cross and follow me cannot be my disciple.” (Luke 14:27)

“In the same way, any of you who does not give up everything he has cannot be my disciple.” (Luke 14:33)

We must realize that God is not preoccupied with numbers; we are. God is never concerned about the size of a group. Size has nothing to do with success. Success is always based on relationship.

A dying world is looking for genuine disciples - real people whom God possesses and whose obsession is to serve Jesus Christ. That kind of person understands that discipleship means the total renunciation of all selfish interests for the sake of Jesus Christ. It is a total commitment to Him and Him alone and a maximum realization of His life lived through us.

He moves into our personal lives, and presents the necessity of laying aside our personal ambitions, our own goals in life. He strikes at our possessions, the things that we think we own, and says we must abandon these. “Without these terms” He says, “you cannot be my disciples.” Candidly, when we read these passages we ask ourselves, “if these are the terms, am I a disciple?” Certainly these qualifications are impossible to fulfill. It would seem to be a direct appeal from law, laying down demands that are impossible and saying, “Unless you fulfill these requirements, you will never be my disciple.” But let us look in detail at these terms.

Regardless how we may interpret these “hard sayings” of Jesus, we are undone in the light of the impossibility and magnitude of trying to keep this command. Once again, we are faced with a situation impossible through our own strength, but entirely possible by His Holy Spirit. We discover that in order to be a disciple our life must end. This is the way of the Cross that the Lord Himself endured.
“And being found in appearance as a man, he humbled himself and became obedient to death—even death on a cross!” (Phil. 2:8).

And a Cross always has a vicarious nature - it is on behalf of someone else, if we are to die to self-centeredness and to live on behalf of others.

“We who are strong ought to bear with the failings of the weak and not to please ourselves. Each of us should please his neighbor for his good, to build him up. For even Christ did not please himself but, as it is written: “The insults of those who insult you have fallen on me.” (Rom. 15:1-3)

Jesus did not seek His own selfish motives; He came to seek and to save the lost. And Jesus says if we are going to be His disciples - filled with the One and same Holy Spirit - that His agenda must also be ours; not to live, but to die for it is then and only then that we truly discover life.

Process Overview
Discipleship By Design is not a program nor a Bible school philosophy whose primary focus is imparting knowledge through the classroom. Knowledge is only one of the nine elements listed in 2 Peter 1:5-7 of growing in grace and the divine nature. Character cannot be developed in the classroom. It must be “worked out” in the real world since people learn and retain more by action than just by listening.

The Lord not only verbally instructed His disciples, but He also modeled for them what He taught. By demonstrating Kingdom principles He built an experiential base in their lives. He taught them to do the same then moved them through a confidence and wisdom-building process toward ministry release.

Discipleship By Design uses a similar approach in developing Kingdom character traits in each believer. The model is based on the principles found in God’s Word.

Value Of Discipleship By Design
- Development of released disciplers.
- Commissioned ministers.
- Development of a Biblical “world view” of God’s plan in the earth.
- Character assessment and development.
- Equipping with Kingdom principles.
- Hands-on experience and discipleship.

The Course
The course is made up of five books. Work through the material at a pace arranged by the Group Discipler (usually one session per week). The purpose of the process is threefold:

1. Enhance the growth of new or immature Christians into mature disciples.
2. Equip disciples to disciple others.
3. To learn to be Holy Spirit led and empowered in all aspects of ministry.

Spiritual Reproduction
At the beginning and throughout Book One the Group Discipler will challenge each disciple to begin to reach out to a new or immature Christian that he or she knows, to continue the process of multiplication. You will then be reproducing your discipling in a second generation. The purpose of the course is to make disciples who can make disciples.

How To Begin
Discipleship By Design is not a replacement of any of your current processes, programs, or ministries; it is an enhancement to your existing curriculum.

Preferably, your Group Disciplers are those who have come through the process. They are the ones who will eventually be used in leadership. This entire process is based on the team approach modeled by Jesus’ team. Some practical considerations for integration into your Church:

1. Don’t move too quickly! A slower pace is better. You’re building for the future and a process takes time. Remember, the strength and the quality of the foundation determines the strength and quality of everything built upon it. Build to last!

2. Begin by discipling a small group of your most teachable and committed people. Don’t draw a lot of attention to the new process. Remember, it’s the results that count.

3. Become purpose oriented. Discover your passion and direct your efforts toward that end. Not only will purpose keep you on track, it will help you steer clear of wasted efforts. Teach on purpose. Preach on purpose. Sing on purpose. Disciple by purpose. Build on purpose. Grow on purpose. Work with your core leadership and define your purpose and goals to get there. That’s what Discipleship By Design is all about.

4. Recruit your newly trained disciples as Group Disciplers for new groups. You’ll be well on your way!

“We shouldn’t make fun of those who don’t agree with what we believe, but we should always ‘test everything,’ checking their words against the Bible. We are on dangerous ground if we scoff at a person who speaks the truth. Instead we should carefully check out what people say, accepting what is true and rejecting what is false.”

“Some people believe everything they read or hear. Unfortunately, many ideas printed and taught are not true. Believers should have faith, but they should not be gullible. We should verify every message we hear, even if the person who brings it says it’s from God. If the message is truly from God, it will be consistent with Christ’s teachings.”

“In a typical Christian worship service, the things of the Spirit are intended for every member of the body of Christ, not a select few.”
Father, I sincerely desire to walk according to the Spirit and make as my personal commitment to Christ Jesus the fulfillment of His Great Commission as my personal commission. Send me Lord. Use me Lord for your glory. In the precious name of Jesus I pray. AMEN.

CORE Discipleship is a faith-based, Christian organization. Our mission is to help you make disciples of Jesus. We provide a simple and reproducible discipleship process based on Jesus’ “inner circle” or “core” comprised of Peter, James, and John. We also provide discipleship training and discipleship resources available as free downloadable eBooks. CORE is a Biblical process that can help develop an unbelievable spiritual discipleship community where no one stands alone, struggles alone, develops alone or grows up alone.

May God grant that we become
His disciples by His grace,
